The Kilkenny Novena

Please take home a 'flier' containing detailed timetable of services at our Novena beginning Tuesday week.

The organisers are confident that the new date in May will bring out a larger attendance of people from Kilkenny and surrounding parishes than did the colder, darker month of February.

This year's Novena will be conducted by Fr Brendan Keane (leader) and Fr Denis Luddy, Redemptorists. Our parish choirs will provide the music for the evening (7.30) sessions, while the Redemptorists will lead the singing at the morning (7.30 & 10.30) sessions.

New prayer booklets (€1) by The Redemptorists will be available. A guest speaker will also feature at the evening mass – the exact day yet to be confirmed.

We look forward to this great Spiritual Grace-filled event that had its inception back in 2008, the Centenary Year.

Prayer Leaflets for the success of the Novena are also available this weekend at the back of the church.

Special collection for Ukraine

On Divine Mercy Sunday, at the heart of the Jubilee Year, The Holy Father, Pope Francis ended Mass in St. Peter's Square by calling all Catholics to offer their solidarity to the long suffering millions in Ukraine who have been enduring a war for the last two years.

The Pope announced his desire that a special collection be taken up in all Catholic churches, particularly in Europe, on Sunday, 24th April 2016, to both raise awareness and alleviate the suffering of the people of Ukraine.

We would very much appreciate your support for the people of Ukraine by contributing to a collection this week end.

The Diocese of Ossory

invites applications from suitably qualified persons for the position of Coordinator of the Diocesan Pastoral Plan
