PRESIDER: In this season of Lent,
we gather together to ask God's forgiveness
for any wrong that we may have done.
We come knowing that God loves us and never wants to be separated from us.
And so let us stand and sing
in praise of his love for each one of us.

OPENING SONG:

SUGGESTIONS: We Gather in Body (Alive O 8, p. 288)
What so ever you do (Alive O 5, p. 209)
A Íosa, Glan mo Chroíse (Alive O 5 p. 235)

OPENING PRAYER:

PRESIDER: Loving God,
You sent us Jesus your Son to show how great is your love and care for each one of us.
On this day
give us the courage to face the things we have done
that separate us from your friendship.
Help us to welcome your love and forgiveness once more.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

(Presider invites all present to be seated as we listen to God's word to us today.)

LITURGY OF THE WORD

(The scripture texts that follow use the Contemporary English Version translation.)

A Reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans

What can we say about all this?

If God is on our side, can anyone be against us?

I am sure that nothing can separate us from God's love -

not life or death, not angels or spirits,

not the present or the future,

and not powers above or powers below.

Nothing in all creation can separate us from God's love for us in Christ Jesus our Lord! The Word of the Lord

PSALM:

"My Shepherd is the Lord" p. 236 Alive O 4 (using verse one as the refrain after verse 2&3)

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: (can be sung)

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory.

(The following Gospel reading might be used with children from 3rd/4th classes)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus was going through Jericho, where a man named Zacchaeus lived. He was in charge of collecting taxes and was very rich. Jesus was heading his way, and Zacchaeus wanted to see what he was like. But Zacchaeus was a short man and could not see over the crowd. So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree. When Jesus got there, he looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry down! I want to stay with you today." Zacchaeus hurried down and gladly welcomed Jesus.

Everyone who saw this started grumbling, "This man Zacchaeus is a sinner! And Jesus is going home to eat with him."

Later that day Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "I will give half of my property to the poor. And I will now pay back four times as much to everyone I have ever cheated."

Jesus said to Zacchaeus, "Today you and your family have been saved, because you are a true son of Abraham. The Son of Man came to look for and to save people who are lost." The Gospel of the Lord

(The following Gospel reading might be used with children from 5th/6th classes)

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus took Peter, James and John with him and went up on a high mountain,
where they could be alone.
There in front of the disciples,
Jesus completely changed.
And his clothes became much whiter
than any bleach on earth could make them.
Then Moses and Elijah were there talking with Jesus.

Peter said to Jesus, "Teacher, it is good for us to be here!
let us make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."
But Peter and the others were terribly frightened, and he did not know what he was talking about.

The shadow of a cloud passed over and covered them.
From the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, and I love him.
Listen to what he says!"
At once the disciples looked around,
but they saw only Jesus.

As Jesus and his disciples were coming down the mountain,
he told them not to say a word about what they had seen,
until the Son of Man had been raised from death.
So they kept it to themselves.
But they wondered what he meant by the words
"raised from death". The Gospel of the Lord

HOMILY SUGGESTIONS:

- Relationship with God is a two way thing. Sometimes we do things to avoid being a friend of God, we separate ourselves from God; we forget to pray or don't bother to. We might be too busy to spend some time with God.
Perhaps we do this with our own family and friends - we separate ourselves from them and don't let them enter into our lives (First reading)
- Or perhaps when we are with our family and friends we expect and want them to act and be different people. We want them to be more fun or more athletic or more clever or more popular or more... instead of just seeing them for who they really are and loving them for that. (Gospel - Transfiguration/Zacchaeus)
- God loves us for who we are. God wants us to be the best we can possibly be - but being the best begins with accepting and loving ourselves just as we are, the person God has made us to be. And God is always with us - always loving us and helping us again and again to let go of the things we do that hurt others - calling us to begin again, and to try to be who God wants us to be - showing God's love in the world by how we love and care for one another in our families, in our classrooms and among our friends.

EXPLAIN that to help the children prepare to celebrate the sacrament of reconciliation they are going to spend a few minutes thinking about what they need to say sorry to God for, in what we call an examination of Conscience.

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE:

(Ask the children to close their eyes and picture themselves in the words you are going to say to them. If you find it of help, some music could be played softly in the background)

Imagine yourself in one of your favourite places...a place where you like to be alone...maybe it's in the countryside...or in a park...or in your favourite room in your house...picture that for a while...the different things in the place, the things you can see, the smell of the place, the sounds you can hear...relax there...have a little rest there...

Now imagine that God is in that place with you...sitting down beside you...tell God if there is anything that is getting in the way of your friendship with God...if there is anything getting in the way of your friendship with your parents, brothers, sisters, friends and other people in your life...tell God anything you really want to say sorry to him for...be as honest as you can...

Perhaps there have been times when you have forgotten to pray to God, or times when you have not respected the people who look after you...parents, teachers, guardians...

Maybe you have told lies or been untrue to others in some way...

Maybe you have left out others, bullied them or ignored them...tell God what you want God's forgiveness for...

Now hear God say to you: "I love you and I forgive you. You can begin again to show my love to others."...then rest for a while there with God...enjoy the feeling of friendship and the forgiveness of God.

And when you are ready, quietly open your eyes and in silence, wait for others to open their eyes too.

RITE OF RECONCILIATION:

PRESIDER: As we prepare to ask God for forgiveness for the wrongs we have done let us say together.....

ALL: THE CONFITEOR

I confess to almighty God
and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and in what I have failed to do.
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

SONG: I'm Sorry God Alive-O5 p208
 Song of Repentance Alive-O8 p314

PRESIDER: Jesus loves each one of us and is always ready to forgive us.
Together let pray the pray that Jesus taught us.....

ALL: OUR FATHER

Quiet music might be played during this time!
