Retirement of Tom Duggan:

The Parish Community express their appreciation to Tom for his thirty years of dedication and service to Newmarket National School. He was Principal of the School for those thirty years and his influence and example to all will live on in this community for many years. His educating skills and leadership were always of the highest class. His involvement in sport brought the highest honours to the local community.

We wish you Tom many years of health and happiness in the next chapter of your life and may you find success wherever you go and in whatever you do. Thank you Tom.
